

SOCA QUARTERLY

ACCESS INTO EXCLUSIVE YACHT INDUSTRY

WHAT TO PACK FOR YACHT VACATION

BY: SHEILA RUFFIN

Photography credit: American Green Travel

Your dates are set and flight is booked. Your yacht vacation is almost here! Packing is the only remaining task, but what should you bring?

No need for anxiety, just read on!

Sheila Ruffin is The Boss of Soca Caribbean Yacht Charters.
Book now at www.socayachtcharters.com.

1. SOFT LUGGAGE

Leave hard-shell luggage at home, and go for collapsible/expandable/flexible luggage. Bring stylish, but durable duffle bags (wheels acceptable) and backpacks so your yacht crew can easily and efficiently store them in storage spaces.

2. FOOTWEAR/CLOTHING

- Non-slip, non-scuffing, non-marking shoes (boat shoes)
- Non-slip, non-scuffing, non-marking bedroom slippers
- Water shoes
- Flip flops and sandals
- Swimsuits/swim trunks
- Light-weight swim cover-ups
- Sun/maxi dresses (recommend knee-length or shorter)
- Shorts and linen pants
- Tanks/light tops
- Light jacket/sweater
- Active wear
- Loungewear

3. ACCESSORIES/ITEMS

- Waterproof phone/camera
- Sunglasses
- Favorite brand of toiletries (toiletries are provided)
- Favorite brand of sunblock/sunscreen
- Hair brush and hair clips/ties
- Cosmetics
- Feminine hygiene products
- Razors and tweezers
- Sunhats/baseball caps
- Beach bag
- Portable chargers/power banks
- "Dry-bags" for phone and other essentials
- Prescription medicine
- Contraceptives
- Motion-sickness medicines and/or patches

"Keep it light and simple" when packing for a yacht vacation, and don't forget your passport and immigration documents.

Sheila Ruffin is The Boss of Soca Caribbean Yacht Charters.
Book now at www.socayachtcharters.com.